Synopsis

When it was my job to design Christmas pagents, I became frustrated at the lack of creativity in the retelling of the Christmas story. Hence, I wrote four pantomimes that I call a "living storybook". Basically,a narrator reads the story while kids/teens/adults act out the scenes. Thus a church can have a nice Christmas story without a lot of arm twisting to memorize lines or to speak them loud enough so all can hear. In addition, all stories can be told on a simple stage with props that are ordinary or easy to make. In addition to the four pantomimes, the book also includes four reader's theater that offer unique perspectives on Christmas.
