Cash And The Cartel 2

Synopsis

In this riveting sequel to Cash and The Cartel, Cash Santos is faced with a relentless storm. You would think after she and her estranged twin sister defeated her arch nemesis that everything would be smooth sailing; but this power-packed continuation proves victory is short-lived. Juan Carlos is home and ready to take his place as king, however Cash is reluctant to relinquish her crown. It is clear from the beginning that she could never catch a break, especially with snakes lurking in the shadows. Even with the grass cut low, snakes can still go unnoticed. In addition to having her empire threatened, Cash is dealing with her reservations about taking the next step with Shane. With a life riddled with stress, Cash's health takes the brunt end of the attack; causing her once controlled condition to spiral downwardly. With all the chaos surrounding Cash will she reign supreme once again or will she finally be dethroned?

Customer Reviews

Besides the editing errors, this was a great follow up. It was full of twists and turns. I shed a few tears throughout this book. Cash and Harper definitely compliment each other, and I'm glad they found the truth about their past. Something told me Jeron was still around, only because Cash never said anything about a clean up crew. But in the end everyone gets what they deserve, whether good or bad.

Cash tried to tell Harper something was off with Anita. ^_^ Tak was the coolest and didn't deserve what happened. Juan Carlos was doing the most. When everything unfolds I felt really bad for Cash and Harper. Yazz and Shane was true gentlemen. I'm glad Cash finally gave into her feelings.

This was a very good book. I felt like Anita was still lying about something. Everything ended like it should have. With Cash leaving the cartel and being with Shane and Harper and Yazz being together. I kind of felt for Pamela but then again she brought it on herself. Great story!!!!

I'm truly speechless...this book took me on a ride man the twist and turns...I went from laughing to crying to being mad even a little scared...Two books that's all ^_^ I'm definitely going to miss the Cartels...Good job Chanelle I'm looking forward to your future releases...This book was everything 5 stars...R.I.P Tek ^_â•

Ok Shane bout damn time and Yazz is such a great guy and glad Cash gave it up and im happy that Shane and her finally got together but i would love to here J.r and Gabriel what happen after Juan took over the Cartel this was such a great book
