Customer Reviews

Every once in a while something comes along and grabs you so fully that you can't even find the words to adequately say what you want to, but I'll give it a try. This series is so much. B.A. Wolfe made me smile, ripped my heart out and put it back together. And I am totally jealous of all of you who didn't have to wait between the anguishing end of Away for Stay! I was pulled in from the onset of Away. Cassandra is on the run from her life but it isn't long before she literary crashes. Enter Jason. The sweet cowboy who sees something in Cassie that calls to him. They're both timid to give into the strong connection they instantly feel. As they spend more moments together, they give into the want and need to be together. However, they're both harboring secrets; turns out Jason knows hers but holds onto his. When his comes to light, my jaw was on the floor. My heart broke with Cassie and Jason as they struggled to navigate the mess that life threw their way. But the twists and turns didn't stop there. Oh no, fate had more in store for them. Thank goodness Stay picks up where Away ended... Things between Cassie and Mel have become a bit strained but they're still the best of friends. And Moose has also become a huge part of their lives. When Cassie meets a guy in a coffee shop and then again in a bar, sparks fly. But mystery man is harboring a secret of his own. When that secret is revealed, things aren't pretty. Aidan knows there will be hell to pay for hiding the truth from Cassie but knows that it is worth the risk. There is just something about her that he can't explain, yet he is drawn to her in a way he has never been drawn to anyone. Yes, there is a dual POV in the telling of this story and it works brilliantly.
